If you steal it, you'll have to deal with them, and let me tell ya - they've got a lot of lawyers. Not the nice folksy country-style Matlock kind nor the innocent fresh-scrubbed kid-next door kind from the "Ed" show a few years back. No - these lawyers carve pentacles into their chests on the sabbath when they're not busy devouring orphans and wear special wing-tips to hide their cloven hoofs. I'm not kidding. Got it? Good. Now go clean your keyboard - it's filthy, you dirty boy.
